BOARD CHAIRPERSON

Hon. Justice Cordelia Chukwurah (Rtd.)

2023 has been another successful year for us in WINET. Our activities have impacted positively on women, girls, persons with disabilities, youths and men in our project Communities in Enugu State and neighbouring States. We reached out to our target beneficiaries and stakeholders using peer education, dialogues, media advocacy, town hall meetings and Radio interactive programmes. This Annual Report is to let you into how we fared in 2023. We thank our funders, partners and beneficiaries.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR WINET

Women Information Network (WINET), has been working to promote the rights of women, girls, youths and Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) by designing and implementing projects to empower them.

We are happy that we are living up to our mission which is to uplift Nigerians especially women, young people and persons with disabilities by providing them with information and support to enable them live fruitful lives.

We disseminate information through the media on ending Sexual and Gender Based Violence and Girl-Child Marriage; through our peer education circle, women were educated in three Communities of Ugwuaji, Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu and Umuatugbuoma in Enugu State on how to take joint action for their well-being. Our membership of Networks/Coalitions has been yielding results.

We present here our 2023 annual report. Read on!

WHO WE ARE

Women Information Network (WINET) is a women's rights, women led, media focused, non-governmental and non-profit organization, working to promote and protect the rights of women, girls and Persons with Disabilities (PWDs). WINET is registered with Corporate Affairs Commission Nigeria in 2002 with registration number RC:14892 and belongs to many networks. It is also registered with the Federal Ministry of Women Affairs and Social Development and Enugu State Ministry of Children, Gender Affairs and Social Development. WINET is an organization in Special Consultative Status with the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) since 2020.

Vision: An informed society where women know, exercise and enjoy their rights, while performing their duties and obligations.

Mission: is to uplift Nigerians especially women, young people and persons with disabilities by providing them with information and support to enable them live fruitful lives.

ORGANIZATIONAL GOALS

- A society where women, girls and persons with disabilities know, exercise and enjoy their rights.
- A society free from sexual and gender based violence as well as discrimination against women, girls and Persons with disabilities.
- A society that promotes gender equality by providing empowerment for all women, girls and persons with Disabilities.

CORE VALUES:

- Respect for Human Rights
- Integrity
- Professionalism
- Transparency and Accountability
- Non-Partisanship and Non-Sectarian

WHAT WE DO

WINET carries out activities to promote and protect the rights of women and girls as well as Persons with Disabilities (PWDs). We provide them with information on the procedure for enforcement of their rights and create awareness to prevent and end sexual and gender based violence and other harmful practices including girl-child marriage and Female Genital Cutting/Mutilation. We disseminate information to promote the sexual reproductive health and rights of women and girls. We empower them with information that will enable them to make informed decisions. One of our projects is the Right to be a Girl Project-projects to end child marriage in which we provide scholarship to assist the girls' parents in keeping them in school, supported by Mundo Cooperante of Spain. We have Peer Learning Circle for women in three Communities of Ugwuaji Enugu South Local Government Area, Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu and Umuatugbuoma in Nkanu-West Local government area of Enugu State where they mobilize and organize around issues that affect their lives politically, culturally, socially and economically. The project is in partnership with ActionAid Nigeria under the Women's Voice and Leadership Nigeria project funded by Global Affairs Canada.

PROJECTS IN 2023

January 2023, marked the 3rd-year of implementation of our 5-Year Strategic Plan (January 2021–December 2025, which projects that our institutional profile, status and credibility within the Nigerian society will be greatly enhanced.

The strategic plan has three objectives as follows:

- Familiarizing its key beneficiaries, namely women, girls, youths and persons with disabilities, with the various local national, regional and international laws and instruments in place to protect and guarantee their rights.
- Providing its key beneficiaries, namely women, girls, youths and persons living with disabilities with information that will enable them to improve their lives and livelihoods.
- Re-inventing the organization by addressing the institutional challenges currently confronting it and boosting its programming to make it one of the most prominent and effective women's NGO in the South-East.

The Programme Areas and Priority Actions include:

- The Rights of Women and Girls
- Gender, Sexual and Gender Based Violence
- The Rights of Persons with Disabilities
- The Rights of Youths and Young persons

FOCUS 1: THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN, GIRLS AND PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

SUPPORT FOR 248 FEMALE STUDENTS' EDUCATION IN ENUGU STATE, NIGERIA FUNDED BY MUNDO COOPERANTE OF SPAIN SEPTEMBER 2022 – 2023/ SEPTEMBER 2023 – May 2024

Under the 4th and 5th editions of the project “The Right to be a Girl” - Projects working to end Girl-Child marriage, titled Support for Female Students Education and Scholarship for Girls Education in Enugu State Nigeria, two hundred and forty-eight (248) indigent female students have benefitted. The project is to support young girls' retention in school, so that they will not be vulnerable to girl-child marriage. One hundred and twenty-eight (128) female students in Enugu State Nigeria received Scholarship for 2022/2023 academic session. They were provided with school bags, notebooks, Mathematical sets and other writing materials. They include one hundred and six (106) female students of Comprehensive Secondary School Akpasha, and twenty-two (22) female students of Community Secondary School, Iva-Valley.

This is because lack of information on this biological process breeds fear and shame. On 28th May, 2023 WINET marked the event with girls of Community Secondary School Iva Valley Enugu State using the Rosie's story, from the Menstrual Hygiene Education Guide for Sub-Saharan Africa developed by WASH United, we told them that getting a period is a normal biological process for girls.

MOBILIZING WOMEN IN ENUGU STATE TO VOTE IN 2023 GENERAL ELECTIONS IN NIGERIA

In preparation for voting in the 2023 general elections in Enugu State, WINET educated women of Ugwuaji and Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu communities as well as Women with Disabilities on the importance of participating in elections as voters.

FOCUS 2: SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE (SGBV)

SUSTAINED ENLIGHTENMENT CAMPAIGN TO END VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN & GIRLS AND SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE (SGBV) IN ENUGU STATE SUPPORTED BY ACTIONAID NIGERIA UNDER WOMEN'S VOICE AND LEADERSHIP NIGERIA (WVL-N) PROJECT, FUNDED BY GLOBAL AFFAIRS CANADA

The project, in its 5th year in 2023, carried out massive media campaigns and interactive programmes on Radio, town hall meetings and Community dialogues to end SGBV in Enugu State. Activities included 3-Day Comprehensive Training for Women Peer Facilitators from Umuatugbuoma Community on the use of the ActionAid Nigeria Peer Education Manual & sensitization on provisions of Enugu State Violence Against Persons (Prohibition) (VAAP) Law (2019). The training was to empower them through transfer of knowledge and skills necessary for self-development and to enhance their ability to mobilize and organize for collective actions. A similar training had been carried out for Peer facilitators in Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu and Ugwuaji, who are doing the same thing.

The peer educators use the Manual to train others during their groups/associations meetings to understand some cultural, personal situation or conditions in their lives and communities.

Results from Peer Education Groups:

- The Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu Community in Enugu State has taken a momentous step towards ending violence against women and girls. Through the remarkable efforts of WINET peer facilitators and women-led campaigns to end the practice, the community has officially abolished Female Genital Cutting. A proclamation issued by His Royal Highness, Igwe Ignatius Ugwu, firmly declares the prohibition of Female Genital Cutting, making it unlawful for parents, family members, or Traditional Birth Attendants (TBAs) to subject female children to this practice, effective from March 9th, 2023.

- In Umuatugbuoma Community, Mrs. Bridget Ogbodo, a fifty-nine-year-old widow has established her own business through which she generates income to cater for her children. She makes and sells fufu.
- The women have learnt to improve on their relationship as members of groups, following what they learnt on Interpersonal Relationships.
- The women groups in the three Communities are leading advocacy for the inclusion of women in the Traditional Rulers Cabinet and Town Union Executive.

MEDIA CAMPAIGNS ON ENDING SEXUAL AND GENDER-BASED (SGBV) IN ENUGU STATE

Through our interactive Radio programmes and dissemination of WVL-N jingles and fliers which gave messages in the local dialect condemning acts of violence against women and girls; called on men and boys to desist from violence; and dissemination of provisions of the Enugu State VAPP Law (2019) that punish perpetrators. Another message called on the citizens to support women's political participation. The jingles and Radio interactive programmes were broadcast on Urban Radio, Dream FM and Energy FM in Enugu State. Over twenty-five (25,000) radio listeners received information on ending SGBV in Enugu and neighbouring States.

SUSTAINABILITY OF THE PROJECT

WINET organized Town Hall Dialogues for Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu and Ugwuaji Women in Peer Education Circle to give them an opportunity to share learnings with their Community men and seek their support to continue with the activities after the project exit. The Traditional Rulers of Amagu Akegbe-Ugwu Community, HRH Igwe Ignatius Ugwu and the Onowu of Ugwuaji Community, Dennis Ani pledged their community's support for the Women Peer Education Programme. In line with the promise, one of the community's king makers in Ugwuaji Community, Nze Sam Ugwu said that by 2024 women will be elected into the Town Union Executive.
